

Massachusetts Goes Blue to Brown!

In a stunning political upset Tuesday, January 19th, Scott Brown (R) defeated the state's Attorney General Martha Coakley (D) to replace Edward Kennedy in the US Senate. Senate Elect Brown upset last week stripped Democrats of their majority.

Brown calls himself fiscally conservative and socially conscious. He is an alluring story of a self-made guy and a patriot who served 10 years in the National Guard.

One of Browns closest friends is Brandon Associates CEO Donald Flanagan. Flanagan speaks to Scott's deep sense of conviction, value and love for country. "Scott is a true game changer; he's a multifaceted guy whose work ethic is second to none."

Senator Scott Brown and Donald Flanagan at an event sponsored by the Massachusetts State Police

Brandon Associates is expanding its Homeland Security Defense and Law Enforcement Practice and is pleased to announce the addition of two new members.

Lt. Bruce Lint, Esq. Senior Public Policy and Counsel

Lt. Lint (Ret.) is Co-Chair of the firm's public policy, technology and homeland security practice. He draws from years of experience in the fields of technology, law enforcement and homeland security. Lt. Lint is also an experienced litigator.

Lt. Lint served as a National Security Advisor and Intelligence Oversight Operations Commander for 26 years with the Massachusetts Department of State Police. He has extensive experience in security operations and public safety serving as Director and Lead Coordinator for all major events in the Boston region, including the Democratic National Convention (DNC). He worked as Supervisor for the Search Warrant Response Team, Governors Warrants and Fugitives and served as primary liaison on behalf of the State Police, the Department of Conservation and Recreation, and the Massachusetts Highway.

Lt. Lint is an active participant of numerous public safety organizations, including the Regional Homeland Security Council, and has served on the Joint Terrorism Task Force as point of contact for The Massachusetts State Police.

Lt. Lint also served as past President of the State Police Commissioned Officers Association (COA) for Massachusetts State Police which included all members of the Department of the MSP from the rank of Lieutenant to Colonel/Superintendent.

Lt. Lint earned a B.A. in Accounting from Boston College and a J.D. from the New England School of Law. He was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar in 1989.

Mike Fullerton Senior Policy Advisor

Michael Fullerton advises clients on a range of federal, legislative and procurement matters, working closely with key congressional leaders, senior agency officials and key stakeholders to further client interests.

His extensive government sector experience includes development and implementation of substantive policies and strategies in connection with law enforcement and military affairs. Before joining Brandon Associates, Mr. Fullerton served as the Executive Director of the Office for State and Local Law Enforcement at the United States Department of Homeland Security (DHS).

Mr. Fullerton also served as the Deputy Executive Director of the 27 Homeland Security Advisory Committees and the Homeland Security Advisory Counsel (HSAC) of the DHS, in which he worked with leaders in homeland security policies and procedures from the private sector, state and local government, emergency responder and academic communities. The HSAC and its senior advisory committees made recommendations on security issues including the future of terrorism, critical infrastructure policy and information sharing between various departments.

Mr. Fullerton is a member of the National Sheriffs Association and the Police Executive Research Forum.

Michael graduated from the University of Connecticut with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and a minor in History.

For further information on Lt. Bruce Lint and Mike Fullerton please visit our website at www.brandonassociatesllc.com/aboutus